MICKLEFIELD HALL QUERCUS CLASSIC CUVÉE

In 2023, Anna and Jamie embarked on a project to develop a sparkling wine for Micklefield Hall. With the help of Jodie Newman (our fabulous label designer) Quercus was born.

We wanted the wine label to reflect the most precious asset of Micklefield, our Temple. Nestled in the gardens, overlooking the round pool and shaded by the 450 year old oak tree, the Temple bears witness to many special marriage ceremonies.

The name Quercus was chosen as it is the Latin for Oak and a special illustration was commissioned to capture the classic architecture of the Temple, the ripples of the pond and shelter from the oak leaves.

The Classic Cuvée is cultivated, blended and bottled on the fringes of the Ashdown Forest. Produced in the traditional method (like Champagne), this English fizz is fragrant and floral on the nose, tastes of orange zest, citrus, white blossom and fresh green apples and dances around your mouth with it's creamy moose and crisp, fresh acidity.

The marquee leads off the terrace, adjacent to the Great Barn. Fully heated and lined with drapes, this space makes a luxurious wet weather contingency for break out sessions and drink receptions.

Access to the dressing room is from 8am on the day. This room can also be used for remote working, small meetings or as a tech/band break room.

The six bedrooms, beautifully designed in the old cow barn, are named after Anna & Jamie's children, their daughter-in-law and Jamie's dog. Each room was individually decorated by their namesake (though Oly had a little help from Jamie!).

All rooms are double bedrooms, each with a King-sized bed and en-suite bathroom, tea & coffee making facilities, TV and WiFi. Three of the rooms can be changed to twin beds if required.
