MICKLEFIELD HALL
QUERCUS

---

MICKLEFIELD HALL QUERCUS CLASSIC CUVÉE

In 2023, Anna and Jamie embarked on a project to develop a sparkling wine for Micklegate Hall. With the help of Jodie Newman (our fabulous label designer), Quercus was born.

We wanted the wine label to reflect the iconic image of the Temple. Nestled in the gardens, overlooking the round pool and shaded by the 450 year old oak tree, the Temple bears witness to many special marriage ceremonies.

The name Quercus was chosen as it is the Latin for Oak and a special illustration was commissioned to capture the classic architecture of the Temple, the ripples of the pond and shelter from the oak leaves.

The Classic Cuvée is cultivated, blended and bottled on the fringes of the Ashdown Forest. Produced in the traditional method (like Champagne), this English fizz is fragrant and floral on the nose, tastes of orange zest, citrus, white blossom and fresh green apples and dances around your mouth with its creamy moose and crisp, fresh acidity.

Add our Micklegate Hall Quercus to your drinks reception or as a special toast drink.
